

The Mystery of a Turkish Bath

by Rita (E. M. Gollan) (1850–1938)

A group of guests, at an exclusive luxury hotel in Hampshire, are the witnesses of an illustration of occult powers, demonstrated by “the Mystery”, as Mrs. Jefferson named the beautiful stranger who one day appeared in the Turkish Baths of the hotel. The events that follow lead Mrs. Jefferson to question the wisdom of her interest in the occult. (Summary by Bev. J. Stevens)

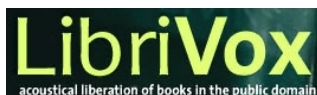

Total running time: 3:53:25

Read by Bev J. Stevens

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org

Cover art adapted from “The Turkish Bath”
painted by Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres in 1862.
Cover design by Bev J. Stevens. This design is in the public domain.

The Mystery of a Turkish Bath

by Rita (E. M. Gollan) (1850–1938)

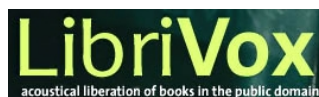

A group of guests, at an exclusive luxury hotel in Hampshire, are the witnesses of an illustration of occult powers, demonstrated by “the Mystery”, as Mrs. Jefferson named the beautiful stranger who one day appeared in the Turkish Baths of the hotel. The events that follow lead Mrs. Jefferson to question the wisdom of her interest in the occult. (Summary by Bev. J. Stevens)

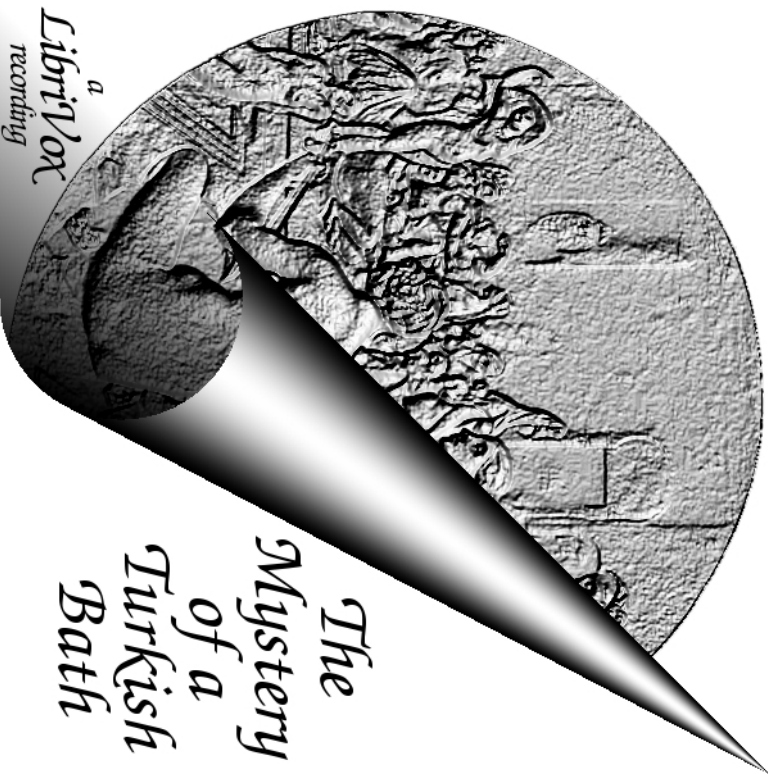

Total running time: 3:53:25

Read by Bev J. Stevens

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org

Cover art adapted from “The Turkish Bath”
painted by Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres in 1862.
Cover design by Bev J. Stevens. This design is in the public domain.

The Mystery of a Turkish Bath

The Mystery of a Turkish Bath

by Rita (E. M. Gollan) (1850–1938)

A group of guests, at an exclusive luxury hotel in Hampshire, are the witnesses of an illustration of occult powers, demonstrated by “the Mystery”, as Mrs. Jefferson named the beautiful stranger who one day appeared in the Turkish Baths of the hotel. The events that follow lead Mrs. Jefferson to question the wisdom of her interest in the occult. (Summary by Bev. J. Stevens)

Total running time: 3:53:25 Read by Bev J. Stevens

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org

Cover art adapted from “The Turkish Bath”
painted by Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres in 1862.
Cover design by Bev J. Stevens. This design is in the public domain.